“I clearly understood your sincere advice and involvement in the update. Due to covid and other economic issues i am not getting any opportunities and assignments for valuation. Also since my induction as an IBBI valuer i did not get even a single opportunity for IBBI valuation. Also it is very hard to state that I have spent more than 75000/- to get enrolled as a valuer including your first year fees, MEP fees, Registration fees, Exam fees etc. However I hope the best in the coming years and shall put all my strength to be updated with your forum. Kindly bear with me for the inconveniences if any caused to you in this regard. Please wait for good news to happen in the future and 2022. As one date there is No valuation performed by me for NCLT”

3. Analysis and Findings

3.1 As per Rule 11 of Annexure III of Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017 (“Rules”), an organization may require the members to pay a fixed sum of money as its annual membership fee. As per Rule 16 of Annexure III of Rules, a member shall submit information about ongoing and concluded engagements as a registered valuer, in the manner and format specified by the Organization, at least twice a year stating inter alia, the date of assignment, date of completion and reference number of valuation assignment and valuation report. Further, IOV-RVF also provides procedural framework comprising of collection of the information, record(s) and document(s) both from the Valuer Member(s) and from independent sources to monitor the performance of Valuer Member(s) in form of Annual Data i.e. M-3 E-Form and Activity Data i.e. M-4 E-Form. It would not be improper to mention here that IBBI time and again has laid emphasis on Educational Course and Continuing Professional Education as per Rules 12(2)(e) of the Rules.
